

Golden Nugget Thumbnails

Knowing more.....remembering more..... connecting learning

Co mput i ng

- To know computers can be used for communication (video calls, text messages).
- To know what personal information is and that we should not share it online.
- To know that not all information online is true.
- To know who to talk to if they are worried or concerned about something they have seen online.

Golden Nuggets

Year 2

Summer Term 2

PE

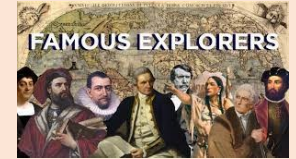

- To know how to hit a ball with some consistency.
- To know how to run with control, showing the ability to change speed and direction quickly, putting themselves in advantageous positions in small sided games.
- To know how to run, jump and land effectively and with control in a game.

Celebrating Diversity

- To know where the Caribbean is.
- To know what languages are spoken in the Caribbean.
- To know which island Floella Benjamin is from.

History

- To know that Christopher Columbus was born in Genoa, Italy in 1451.
- To know that he was a sailor. His first voyage nearly ended in disaster as his ship was attacked and set on fire by pirates! Columbus only survived by swimming to land.
- To know that he became famous as the explorer who found new lands called 'The Americas'. (But actually, many people already lived there).
- To know that Tim Peake was born on 7th April 1972.
- To know that he is a British astronaut who became famous when he spent six months living and working on the International Space Station (ISS) in 2015/16.
- To know that he was the first British astronaut to board the ISS, a laboratory 400 kilometres from Earth.

Geography

- To know countries, towns and cities located around the equator experience hot weather throughout the year.
- To know the North Pole is at the northernmost point of the Earth, while the South Pole is at the southernmost point on the Earth.
- To know the area around the North and South Poles is very cold but the area around the equator is very warm.
- To know that when you are standing on the North Pole, any direction you point is South.

D.T.

- To know that we use a pattern to help us make an accurate design.
- To know that they can join 2 pieces of fabric together using a sewing stitch.
- To know that they can use embellishments to make features on their puppet character.

PSHE

- To know how to develop an understanding of change and loss and the associated feelings?
- To know how to recognise that my behaviour can affect other people?
- To know how to recognise when people are being unkind either to me or others, how to respond, who to tell and what to say?

Science

- Know that a living thing moves, reproduces, shows sensitivity, needs nutrition, respire, grows.
- Know that there are many types of habitats and name them desert, meadow, woodland, grassland, forest, seashore, ocean.

Music

- To know that music can have a specific style according to the country.
- To know that traditional music can be played in any country (e.g Spanish music is not only played in Spain).
- To know that a didgeridoo is an Australian instrument made from a tree trunk.

R.E.

- To know that every single person is unique and valuable regardless of if they follow a religion or not.
- To know that Genesis 1 highlights that God created all that is in heaven and earth. Christians and Jews believe this is a reminder to them to protect the environment and look after what God has made.
- To know that the teachings in the Bible help encourage Christians to look after the natural world.